etorn emocrat.

No. 42, Vol. 5, New Series.

Paris, Maine, Tuesday, February 24, 1846.

Old Series. No. 52, Vol. 14.

OXFORD DEMOCRATE PUBLISHED EVERY TUESDAY, DY Q. OU. ElGifeit,

EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR. Traus :- One Dollar and Fifty Cents in advance. Appearisements inserted on reasonable terms :- the Proprietor not being accountable for any error beyond the amount charged for the advertisement. A reasonable deduction will be made for eash in advance.

Book and Job Printing EXECUTED WITH NEATNESS AND DESPATCH.

POBTBT.

From the Saturday Courier. THE DELUGE.

ny i. b. Pent. "I had a dream which was not all a dream." The sun-so steady in its onward course, Since first the morping stars together sang-Wheeled backward o'or the flight of time, and sho On men and things, as centuries ago. Time was again, that had been-graves gave up Their victims -mea who'd lived and died, and slept Entombed for ages, lived and died again. Depopulated cities were renewed. To life, and their wonted pompt and pride. Where valor fought in other days, was seen Once more, the contest of embattled hosts. All men that are, were not; nor were to be, Till Time had run his round of centuries.

"A change came o'er the spirit of my dream." Far back as time had rolled, and on the verge Of future years, I stood; saw nations rise, And men, re-animated, live again. No change was found in all their course of sin; No more of purity, or of virtue, seen; No more of moral excellence, and love Of holmess, or truth, or nature's Gon— No bounds were set to wickedness—the path That led to run swarmed with myriads. Revenge, ambition, ency, pride and hate; Disgusting selfishness, lying, deceit, Hypocrisy, and blaspheory shameless, Did gather to themselves eternal night. Virtue and truth had fled; pollution's self Hecame es man, and even seemed as pure. Inknown was fear of God, or death; the death In time, or in eternity, that was, Or was to be, and be forever, the death That never dies. All men had lost restraint. It was an ago of guilt and wickedness, That demons blushed to own; and trembling, feares Though man did not. His awful destiny Had come. Too long had mercy warned in vain: Too long had justice been despised, contemned. Frail non his duty knew, and did it not, But cursed the voice that warned him of his fate.

t change came o'er the sorn of my droam. On all men came, and creatures of the earth: And in that dreary, montless, storless night, The mountain monsters frightened from their dens. Did hawl and grash their teeth in face of man, -The very reptile crasking 'neath the feet of men. Did twine, and coil horself, and hiss through fear, As windows, now, of Heaven were opened wide, And fountains of the mighty deep broke up. Old Ocean leaped his bounds, valleys became As lakes, and lakes as shoreless oceans ocemed. Rivers impetuous, exhaustless, ceased To flow; or flowing, can the other way. Dread consternation took fast hold on all. Men, terrified beyond conception, fled; And clambered up high class in their retreat. But lo ! the mountains "sank like had," or seemed To sink as though their bases were dissolved, Amid the raging war of elements. No refuge and escape from death for death Was universal. Man, apastate, fallen, Who cursed himself, and cursed eternal tiones. Withered, died; all died except the favored few, Who worshipped God in halmess and truth All found one grave, and sele eternity.

from the drawers of your desks?

thay strip you of the clothes on your body.

pointments of judges and other officers of courts, buttle of life.

and repeal all protective laws. It is to stand up like a mon and let an assassin blow your brains out. In short it is to follow the devil wherever he chooses to lead you, without in the least holding back or slackening your pace.

A PERTINENT REPLY.—It is said that a subpersuade you to remain in Prussia?"

"Most gracious sire, only by making Prussia what America is."

He was suffered to emigrate.

There are two soits of enemies inseperable discovery you will make next. bly, both dangerously.

THE STORY THELLISIR.

From the Columbian.

LOOK BEFORE YOU LEAP.

BY MISS C. M. SEDGWICK.

I was on a visit, not long since, to a friend of mine, who, still in the unimpaired maturity of hife, is surrounded by grown and growing children. Her summer residence is in the neighborhood of a thickly populated village, and being a 'most gracious ladge,' she is sometimes over visited by her social neighbors. We had one of those occurrences which in June give such an out-door freshuess and fragrance, and always an in-door sweet security—a rainy day. Days of a grave smile, 'may they not be allowed to sanc.'

I was on a visit, not long since, to a friend of mine, the very soul of all their disappointment of his not being with them, he appeared among them, the very soul of all their between the looking man I ever saw.'

'Agreeable looking too?'

Till now I had listened to what was to me an individual to the most agreeable looking man I ever saw.'

'Agreeable looking too?'

Till now I had listened to what was to me an individual to the peared among them, the very soul of all their bleasures.'

'Mamma,' interrupted Clara Reyburn, 'you said you were going to tell a love story?'

'So I am, my dear, and I am just introducing you to one of the parties.'

'But utterly worthless as reason and jndgment, with he was thirty years old!'

'That Mr. Sheafe, mamma? Why you said wyou to one of the parties.'

'That Mr. Sheafe, mamma? Why you said wyou to one of the parties.'

'That Mr. Sheafe, mamma? Why you said wyou to one of the parties.'

'That Mr. Sheafe, mamma? Why you said wyou to one of the parties.'

'Yes, Clara, and he was thirty fier here.' I was on a visit, not long since, to a friend of own heart's selection? rural dissipation, of rides, drives, walks and pic- a grave smile, 'may they not be allowed to sanc- 'Yes, Clara, and he was thirty-five, before I nics had preceded it, and an immense batch of tion or influence, or even to decide an insufficience to the love part of my story.' sewing had accumulated in my friend's works cient love? and eyeing, as she called it, and little Laura was tion, nor its disfavor throw one shadow over make Mrs. Ewing live in a house rent free, of suddenly betrayed into a disclosure for which he said he had taken a lease for a had debt live. to replace the missing strings.

ne, said her mother.

terrunted Anne Ryeburn, with an arch smile. The mother returned a smile as she said, 'You lovedon't deserve for that the pleasure I had allotted to you; but it does not signify-people seldom get their deserts in this world ; so, Miss Anne, you may reed to us while we work. There is for social reading. Open it where you may you cannot fail to fall on something agreeable.

We were soon arranged for our morning's business, and a lovelier household group than the mother and her girls I have seldom seen .rons, 'fair, fat and forty,' might be applied to my age is disgraceful without love-that friend; but in her case, the fortunate physical circumstances were symbols of moral wealth and beauty. The fair and fat, indicated health produced by a wise simplicity of living, by the most poetical oracle whom you have quoted, also says beneficent disposition and the sweetest screnity of temper; and the forty was forty years of sonsline, with only just so much of clouds as is necessary to keep frail human nature alive and vigolounged on the sofa with her book; and the rived at her more sober point of view. rounger girls, their faces 'bright with thought- . I confess my sympathies were with the daugh- wood book-cases-all were his gifts. All her ex- Mrs. Ewing saw the carpenters bring in empty nattered musically on the doorstep, and the sweet by reason. briar, honeysuckle and mignonette sent in to us. Mrs. Reyburn admitted that in theory I was first to possess it, and never had she occasion for to be carried away dead in it. their exquisite dairs. When the sky prightened right, but she contended that there were many lor a moment, the robins swelled their throats; modifications and aspects of love; that character peared at the door. Kate was not very far sightly on never saw such a change as there is in Mr. Sheafe's room; its day is changed into night,— tain's side insured the continuance of the morn-reality from what youth pictured it; that she had always done. Her simple beart.

one saw her for the first time without exclaiming, tion of poetry and the basis of romance. thow like her mother! and to a slight observa- 'I will tell you a true story, girls,' she said, 'Mr. Sheafe looked grave and displeased. A at without feeling that he is just going to speak find their way in more uncertain and more de- voucher:

must do for itself the hardest work of education when he first took possession of his rooms - Ewing. But she, as you know, Miss - al- how things does turn topsy turny in this world. It is to dismiss all sheriffs, constables, police —the training of feeling, the subdoing of passion Dear Mrs. Eveng! she used to say be gave her ways took the sense that met the ear. officers, &c., recall all commissions and ap- the maturing of reason, must for itself light the no more trouble than a kitten, and yet he had. 'But, mamma,' interrupted Anne Reyburn, 'I never kept the dimer waiting, and never camp it;) but her profrait, in all its unframed luxuris -and they might wrap themselves in the bed- and fine large dark eyes, and plenty of black her round black cheeks. She continued; With ance, would not more than the space we make choins, pur down the curtains, pure up the custos, name.

now assigned to other matter so we leave her tattle down the shorel and tongs, any thing but . 'Oh Anne, my dear,' replied her mother, length- but he's as clear as spring water. He knows happy marriages ?

'I don't care about 'the end,' mamma; I wish so, are going to have a pic-nic on Staten Island,' form the fine classic shape of his head, which, o be happy in the beginning."

basket. She called us all about her, and gave No, no-olt no, mamma! An insufficient to each an appropriate task. I took a pile of love is no love at all is good for nothing. The to each an appropriate task. I took a pile of love is no love at an is good for nothing. I have that fortune and few wants, and he continued to let stockings, whose 'windowed raggedness' was to man that I marry I must love with a love that fortune and few wants, and he continued to let 'Not, perhaps, what you would quite call fall-nothing it fall like the quiet and plentiful dews of heaven and believes all things. The whole world's farm on the right and on the left. There was no burners was not the felt for her as a child, grew insensibly into a love with her.' tain sides. On Clara devolved the task of shook ver would not advance him one jot in my affect den in his favors. For five years he managed to strange sentiment, and one bright day he was

Extravagant, mamma!'

him from all the world for you; that your broth-them to take money without an equivalent,— affairs must be embarrassed, and then funcied it Boswell's Johnson on the table—a delightful book ers were his warm friends; that the children lov- This was something like reversing the old adage was an incipient fever, and begged him to take · Most sacred fire, that burneth mightily In living breasts."

I grant you, Anne, but remember that same · Wonder it is to see to diverse minde,

How diversely love doth his pageant play And shows his power in variable kimls.

or rather far different from what you would call two or three years he had appeared rather more she could not see it; she took up a book, but Mts Reyburn sat, generally filling her com- love, may make the basis of the happert marriage reserved towards her While she was a shild he she did not modeous sewing chair, with her buge work-bas- Do not you? said my friend, appealing to me, was unlimited in his benificence towards her - forward. She sat down to her piano and play-The heavens grew dark with clonics of wrath, that hid ket on the table before her: Anne gracefully and trusting that as her contemporary I had ar-less smiles, sat on their low chairs with their ter; but I compromised between the opposing pensive masters had been employed by him.— boxes, metty work boxes and sewing impliments beside parties so far as to say, that I deemed love with. Now, he ceased to be her open benefactor, some Pea them. The door opened into the garden, fresh out reason perilous, reason without love inadmis-good earthly providence still seemed watching was coming into the house. and flowery in its young June beauty; the rain sible: and the only sure basis, love sanctioned over her, and showering favors upon her. If a Oh, thought Kate, in the impatience of her their exquisite odors. When the sky brightened right, but she contended that there were many a boquet but a boquet of the choicest flowers ap- 'Ma'am, said the chambermaid, rushing in, placid contentment which comes of having no and believed all things' wrecked in the first year openly as he had always done. Her simple heart- 'Is he gone, Jane,' said Kate, starting up. 'Oh no, Miss-Lord how pale you look thought, project, temptation of desire, beyond of marriage; that, for her part, she would rather the present moment.

'I know very well, Mr. Sheafe,' she said, soon dismal like a tomb, I mean. The wardrobe is her girls would trust to a more rational and calm-

It is to stand still and let any rascal take your vious channels-a character better fitted to mod- 'A Mr. Ewing, the friend of our parents, died 'Well, I assure you,' replied Mrs. Ewing, com- make my head ache, pochet-book and watch, and if he chooses he 'ly circumstances than to be modified by them. immediately after some reverses in his business, pletely baffled, 'I have not the smallest notion 'Why, Miss Kate!' said June, as she shut the My friend influenced the formation of her child and left his wife with a large young family and who it is. I never once thought of any one but door after her, she muritured to herself, ther dren's characters rather by the atmosphere of af- an impaired fortune. Mrs. Ewing took a small you. To be sure I ought to have remembered heart aches more likely, and its good enough for It is to look on calmly while a secondrel in- fection and kindness, with which she surround- house, and let her two best rooms to a single gen- that you never in years past made secret of your her, for I know she is at the bottom of it. sults your wife, your daughter, or your sister. led herself, than by any direct bearing of authorist lleman who boarded with her and paid her liber. gilts. A smile that in spite of him, played over 'A few moments after, in flounced Sophy, the It is to minuse yourself by columny observing ty upon them. This is an admirable and sufficient Sheafe. He was a singular man Mr. Sheafe's lips, and a blush that deepened his cook, and after turning her eye from Mrs. Eve the incendicry, while he is busily employed in each agent, with gentle and phable materials. I this Mr. John Sheale, but his singularities were rather deep colored check, would have told the ing to her daughter, 'It's true, ma'am,' she said, porting shavings in your parlor or bed chamber, Aune has one of those strong characters that graceful and pleasing. He was about thirty truth to a more suspicious person than dear Mrs. I see it's true; I could not believe Jane. Well his particularities. Though his rooms were furn- trust Mr. Sheafe was not a rosy bachelor. I can too soon, and frested for it. Who'll regulate the I am tempted to draw Anne's character, which which with every convenience and elegance, he magine a girl of Miss Ewing's age, falling des- clock now? I shall never take no more satisis curious enough in those days of task-work cd- did not scruple to let in all the little Ewings-a perately in love with a man, even it he were forty, faction in roasting a goose. He always said I ucation and regular training, (dwarfing, she calls perfect menagerie of wild young things they were if he were tall, with a pale, marble complexion, did it to a turn.' The tears actually tolled over ance, would fill more than the space we have cloths, pull down the curtains, pile up the chairs, hair. rested and brought before His Majesty. "Well upon Dr. Johnson's saying, that he believed mar- best to look like a thunder storm, but the sun al- far from his forehead that he woremy good friend," said the King, "how can we riages would be full as happy as they are, if ways shone through the clouds, and the little. Oh, not a scratch, mamma, don't say he door gently at this moment and asked matches were made dy the lord chancellor, she wretches were weather-wise enough to know that wore a scratch? threw flown the volume, saying, 'What a detest no storm could gather there, and though Sheale. 'Not quite a scratch, Anne, but a small necely table old goose he is! what did he know about had told them they never should enter his room, fitted patch to hide the ravages of time. Plenty httle younger girls; 'well, Anne, I wonder what for her lodger to counterfeit wrath) assured them fleorgia." Mr. Sheafe was very angry indeed, before twen- But a patch, mamma. Baldness is better than Mr. Sheafe said in a broken voice, I'm going from almost all men, but altogether from men of 'I dare say, Clara, you would like a bushand ty tout hours passed away they had one by one that. My father's head now is beautiful, rather out for an hour; when the entpenter calls, Mr. great fortunes—the flatterer and the liar. One of the Chancellor s choosing, and would take from Stolen in, and were as lawless as ever. Sheafe shall to be sure, but the little hair that he has, is Ewing, be kind enough to tell him the boxes are stickes before, the other behind-both insensi- with a thank you, sir, and if you like him sir, had one positively that puzzled Mrs. Ewing to soft, bright and curly, I am sure I shall.' Now heaven save me even the day of her death. Though of a spirat so social "Oh, father's head is lovely!" cried Clara Rey. "Half on higher other when the corporater did from our dear Chancellor, M--s, choosing a that in every relation in life he felt and made felt born. Chy to let the feelings leak out at the eyes . And yet, Anne, said her marker, "I am not had an aversion to being included in social are half a dozen young voices. produced by pepper, and and once of the harband of any was man's relecting, then his independence, and when Mrs. I.w. proceeded with mentions of the proceeded with mentions of the proceeding with mentions of the proceeding the proceeding the proceeding and mentions of the proceeding the proceeding of the proceeding the proceeding of t

A light laugh, which Anne felt to be against party of pleasure might be, and I have promised would have charmed a phrenologist. I am sure her, ran round the circle. She waited till it was you will join us, -or 'we are going to have such ho large dark-eye ever so expressed, as his beam-in disgrace to marry any man but him of your there'-or 'be here,' and finally perhaps at the graceful movement, and in short, though he had very moment they began to recover from their none of your requisites of beauty, he was the

'Oh horrid, mamma!'

'Mrs. Reyburn proceeded:

'Mr. Sheafe was not rich, but he had an easy in love with her.' which he said he had taken a lease for a bad debt, Kate was totally unprepared. She burst into The whole world? That is talking in very that he had long ago given up as hopeless. He tears, and frankly told him she had never thought 'You are good for nothing at the needle, Angeneral terms; but suppose a case. If you had kept a servant and secretly paid him double was a lover, and never could; but that she a lover whom you liked extreamly but did not ges for doing Mrs. Ewing's work. He had alloved him so dearly she would rather have died love, according to your extravagant notions of ways some poor friend in the shape of a French than tell him so. A total change came over dancing or music-master that he wanted to give him-in place of his perpetual good humor and a little money to, and Mrs. Ewing would particularly cheerfulness, an immovable gravity and Do not interrupt me, Anne. Suppose that larly oblige him if she would allow the children occasional melancholy. Poor Mrs. Ewing could your father and I approved him; would choose to take lessons of them, as he did not like to ask not divine what it meant. She first thought his of 'killing two birds with one stone.' ma. It would not all have the slightest influenced the course of four or five years, would so involve observation to Kate, who she said, had not smiled on me,—it could not. Love comes and goes himself in the concerns of a family, as to become for a week. He made no reply to her, but the whither it will. If reasons were as thick as black-indispensible to their happiness. In this five next morning she was astonished at the informa-That compendious and trite description of mat- herries they could not create love; and marri- years, Catharine or Kate Ewing, as we used to mon that he was going abroad, and that he and

'Oh, now the love story is coming,' cried Clara! Reyburu.

'And reason versus love,' said Anne. Her mother smiled, and went on :-

goung creature. She had been from the begin- Mr Sheafe. Kate went to her worsted work, Now I believe that an affection for short of __ ning a prime favorite of Sheafa's, but for the last but her eyes were so blinded with her tears, that pictures. All her books-the prettiest of rose-insted it. new book worth buying appeared, she was the first misery, 'I wish it were me, and that I were she cannot."

rion there was halle difference but that of age- 'a love story,' I call it. Perhaps it will rectify rare look for him, for of all the men I ever knew something pleasant—that is in a box, and it lookin the daughter, the fervid and startling charm of some of your opinions. My heroine was a friend he was the most cheerful, the most joyous, as he col up at me somehow sorrowful, it did ma'am; the morning—in the mother, the more subdued of Miss —'s as well of mine. She knew as and a right to be, for he was the best. He said, and his dressing gown that always hing there-What is Non-Resistance? It is to take Anne revealed feelings of greater depth than her will vouch for their truth, though indeed there Ewing. You are wasting them; wheever the closen by the ped post, so lively and like Mr. all the locks from the doors of your house and mother's and a more unpulsive gush, hable too to is nothing in them so incredible as to require a giver of these trifles to Kate may be, he should Shenfe, that is packed up too. be allowed the secresy he chooses."

to be guessed at by a few glimpses of her heart touch his pictures and books, and the little sin- mg, nothing can be more unlike your passible what is what, Mr. Sheafe does. He says I'm bers, like their unhappy progenitors, were very lover than my real one. Mr. Speale was not as the only one short of old England that can cook She began to read to us, but she read rather and to seize on the forbidden things, and then bove the middle stature; a fittle inclined to the christian bref steak, and he always has someject of the King of Prossia, a talented mechan- dreamily. Her paetic eyes wandered to the mist they were direct and round and raddy, and as to his barr, once, dis! thing formy to say. Oh, he's sugar and spice too ic being about to emigrate to America, was ar- floating over the mountains, and finally coming the doors shut upon them. Sheafe we ald try his of the softest, lightest brown, it had retreated so A poor widow woman, who served the hours.

again, and Mrs. Eveng with her varnest face of black hair indeed! You will hardly find that Dr. Johnson, an old goose! said one of the (poor Mrs. Ewing! it was as deficult for nor as on a man's head of thirty-live from Manne to of tears from Mrs. Ewing. While in stern were past, and then said, very earnestly.

In pleasent little party this evening, all your friends in grey one did, the kindling and discharging of You may laugh, but is there one of you, from —do come home, he invariably replied 'no—feeling. His lips, between humor, kindness, tenders—down to Lily, that would not think it don't count on me—it is not probable I can be derness, and sympathy, were always in a sort of my hearers exclaim:

Oh, she must have been beautiful and so interesting?

And Clara Reyborn said :-

'I hope that 'old bachelor' didn't dare to fall

You need not suppose any thing more mant- You will easily perceive that such a man, in wretched, if an evil overtook him, and called his call her, had passed from the awkward age of her his servant were packing up his furniture to be removed to a place of storage.

It was a wretched day at the Ewings. Poor Mrs. Ewing walked up and down her room, wringing her hands and wiping her eyes, and wondering (till Kate wished herself deaf that she 'Kate was a light-hearted and happy-tempered might not hear,) what could have happened to

'Dear me,' she said, 'it seems just as if a coffin

Anne Reyburn was just nineteen. Hardly any er sentiment than that which made the inspiratives come from. I may thank the giver if pictures, every one of them, even that pretty like-

'Jone do go away,' said Kate petulantly, 'yen most every body, the scom will rise sometimes, from her thread and needle banker, opened the

'Is it true un'am? is Mr. Sheafe going !

'Yes.'

The Lord have mercy then on the poor. Every new soice brought forth a fresh shower at this point, the door was opened a crack, and call, Kate sprang up and said, I will speak to what has been happily called fellow-hern rism, he 'Oh, yes, I guess it is " exclaimed in a chorus him mamma.' An hour or two more passed no The price of surrow. Crying may be sure that you would not in the end to happer rangements. By price above every thing else Mrs. Revitarn and I exchanged smiles, and she key to the street door, and as he appear rangements. shint it very gently, on one was apprical at lea

Of all the men I ever knew he had the great- obtaining any satisfactory information whatever. Ithere are difficulties now in the way in that had the honor to address to him on the 27th of position of arbitrators to please both parties, the repentance of that morning ----.

a dream of love; if I ever have such a reality as In short, he assumed the preparations in progwas submitted by the President, on the 7th inst., to the House of Representatives: To the House of Representatives of the President' to Congress.

JAMES K. POLK. Washington, February 7, 1846.

To the President of the United States. DEPARTMENT OF STATE. Washington, Feb. 5, 1846.

panying papers.
All which is respectfully submitted.

JAMES BUCHANAN.

Mr. Buchman to Mr. McLane. DEPARTMENT OF STATE. Washington, Dec. 13, 1845.

like preparations. As her relations with all the justice to such a crisis. powers of Europe seem at prescut to be of a peaceful character, the prevailing and natural * inference here is, that these preparations look to "

deen, in such a manner as you may deem most, * expedient. The President is also auxious to learn your own opinion upon this subject with the least practicable delay. I am, &c. JAMES BUCHANAN. Louis McLine, rsq., dec., dec., dec.

Mr. McLane to Mr. Buchanan.

Landon, Jan. 3, 1846.

tico the warlike preparations of Great British, friendly sovereign or State.

ject is is not always easy to obtain very categor. It alon between the two governments.

cet repugnance to scenes. He dreaded dear Mrs In introducing the subject, I adverted at the course of proceeding which it might be tedious last month. Ewing's ingenious demonstrations, so he stole same time to the information the President had to remove, while the importance of an early sethe saw his books were replaced in his book case; in the present pacific state of the relations of ernment think that a resort to arbitration is the some friendly sovereign or state.

States and Great Buttan had become as serious tion, and for a purpose so holy.

States and Great Buttan had become as serious tion, and for a purpose so holy.

Which the President had asserted in the most and the most and the control of the United States to the er would only involve it in new difficulties. from that time to this, I have never repented States and Great Buttan had become as serious tion, and for a purpose so holy. My friend was interrupted by the entrance of not at the same time have had any connexion perfectly compatible with the strictest regard for whole territory. her husband. He had been to the village and with difficulties which had since grown out of the honor and just interests of both parties, parbrought home a basket of fruit and flowers which the Oregon question. He thought, too, that the ticularly when it is considered of what small value present note to renew the discussion as to the state a single reason which, apart from the in-Refburn's bosom, as there will be when old ideas parts of their preparations were the fortifications, the assurance of his high consideration. are giving place to new ones, but it was soon of the principal and exposed ports and stations, er, she said in a subdued voice, 'Nobody but and to the increase of the number of steam vesyourselt, mamma, would have made me believe sels in lieu of the old craft, which it appeared that yours was not a love match in the beginning other untions were about to adopt, and which he us it is in the end. Well, well, I have had many confessed he thought a matter of doubtful policy.

The light just dawned on Clara. Why Anne, from of national defence and protection, and of receipt of the note of Mr. Pokenham, her Brusin-that their own declaration should receive at the dispute on the present occasion? It embraces she exclaimed; Goodness, mamma! Mr. Sheafe, preparing in time of peace for the exigencies of me Majesty's envoy extraordinary and pleurps- hands of the government of Great Bruain. indeed! Dear, dear Mr. Sheafe! If you had war, if it should unfortunately come from any tentiary, dated the 27th ultimo, by which, under This pre-mised, the object of the undersigned northwest coast of the Pacific, and stretches shabbed him, mamma, I never would have for- quester whatever; and he distinctly repeated his instructions from his government, he proposes to in oldinessing to Mr. Buchanan the present com- eastward to the Sammit of the Rocky Mount-may have its influence in dictating the policy of following answer. ferred a resolution of the House of Representa- character and purposes of the warlike preparatives of the 3d inst requesting the President to tions now making by Great British under the be deemed sufficient by the President. communicate to that House, "so far us, in his circumstances. They may be the dictate of vafectually prepared for it at all points, and for all would only involve it in new difficulties. possible purposes, as it that, and that alone, had been the object of all her warlike preparations The President has received information, from promptly and rigorously exert her atmost power trations. a variety of sources, which he cannot disregard, to inflict the minost possible marry upon our that Great Britian is now making extensive w.r. country and all its interests, would not be doing n rupture with the United States on the Oregon: it ought to be expected, indeed from all I learn I question. It is of vast importance that this gov. cannot doubt, that, in case of hostilities, the aim eriment should, as early as possible, ascertain of this government will be to strike its heaviest

> I have honor to be, &c. LOUIS MCLANE. The Hon James Buchanan, Secretary of State, Washington.

Mr. Packenham to Mr. Buchanan Washington, December 27, 1815.

An attentive consideration of the present state of offare, with reference to the Oregon question, has determined the British government to instruct the undersigued, her Britania Majesty's Sin: I received on the 29th of December envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary, your despatch, dated the 13th of that month; again to represent in pressure terms to the govand on the day following, I sought an interview ernment of the United States the expediency of with Lord Aberdeen, in order that, in conformity, referring the whole question of an equitable dewith your instructions, I might bring to his me vision of that territory to the arbitration of some!

Mr. Buchanan to Mr. Pakenham. DEPARTMENT OF STATE, Weshington, January 3, 1846

The undersigned, Secretary of State of the U-

In compliance with the request of the Bouse of the Rouse of the Bouse instant, I herewith communicate a report from Aberdeen, and without meaning to district in spectively. It is a proposition to refer to a friends, the respective claims at each the Secretary of State, with the accompanying the slightest degree the sincertry of his disclaim. It is sovereign or State merely the partition or 'e-. The understand has suggested a reference on bour from its southern extremity until we onthe Secretary of State, with the accompanying the singless degree the sincerity of his disclaimcorrespondence which has taken place "between or in our recent conversation, I do not think it quitable division, of that territory between the some friendly sovereign or ought to be assumed by any one that warlike parties. It assumes the fact that the title of state.

United States at London," and "between the government of Great British and this governgovernment of Great British and this governwhich they are undeniably making here could ment, in relation to the country west of the out a single sale and commodators have been discussion. I do not think it quitable division, of that territory between the the above principle to some friendly sovereign or state and the above prin Rocky mountains, since the last annual message ble contingency of a rupture with us. And at browledgement of the submission would contain on express ac-ments (and more than once ). But there may be territory. It is sufficient for his to state the the same time it is perfectly obvious that they knowledgement of the right of Great Britain to a other forms of arbitration, perhaps, more agrees, continued consiction of the President, that the the same time it is perfectly obvious that they portion of the territory, and would necessarily his to the government of the United States. United States hold the best title in existence to they consist in an augmentation in the number preclude the United States from claiming the There might be, for instance, a mixed com- the whole of this territory. Under this conof steam-vessels and of the navel marine general- whole before the arbitrator. This, too, in the mission, with an unitire appointed by common viction, he cannot consent to justice his is, precisely of the character to be most appro- face of the note of the understance to M. Paken- consent; or there might be a lunard, composed country all the great interests involved, and by fig. precisely of the character to be most approcountry. I am not prepared to say, nor do I ident had asserted, in the most solemn form, the of the time, appointed in such a manner as should Republic of all the good harbors on the coast, Washington, Feb. 5, 1846.

The Secretary of State, to whom has been result to expect an explicit disclaimer of the Even it there were not offer conclusive reasons most enlightened, importal, and independent Sailor to arbitration. for declining the proposition, this alone would minds.

the honor to lay before the President the accom- difficulties, this country will be as fully and ef- attempt to refer this question to a third power, and expedient.

fors to the sentment expressed in the note of the the essurance of his high consideration She will be in a situation to act and strike as undersigned of the 39th August last, to which promptly and signally as she could have been with allusion has already been made, that he 'cherish- To the Hon. J. Bechanas, &c., &c., &c. her energies exclusively directed to that end; es the hope that this long-pending controversy and I feel it my duty to add, that not to ex- may yet be finally adjusted to such a manner as pect, in case a rupture becomes unavoidable, not to disturb the peace, or interrupt the harmothat this government, thus in complete armor, will my now so happuly subsisting between the two

> The undersigned avails himself of this occasion to renew to Mr. Pakenham assurance of his distinguished consideration. JAMES BUCHANAN. * Right Hon. R. PARENDAN, &c., &c., &c.

Mr. Pakenham to Mr. Buchanan. Washington, January 6, 1840 instant, in answer to that of the undersigned ferring the question of an equitable partition of same objection, in point of fact, it not in form, terposition of any urbitrator. the Oregon territory to the arbitration of some which was prominently presented in the an- The undersigned avails himself of this occatriendly sovereign or State.

to to transant this communication to her Mojes, litter [party] should be found, in the opinion of to a government.

R PARENHAM To the Hon. J Bechanan, &c. &c. &c.

> Mr. Pakenham to Mr. Buchman. Washington, January 16, 1846.

which might otherwise greatly embarrass the el- to arbitration the question of the title to the Ore- in the treaty of peace 1783, yet, instead of pur-Lord Aberdeen said very promily and frankly forts of noth governments to preserve a friendly gon territory claimed by the two powers respectiving any range of highlands whatever, he ad-Dear, dear Mr. Sheale—never shall you leave that it would be very improper to disguise that, understanding between the two countries.

It is house if I can help it.

With the sincerest desire to avoid it, they were the United States will see sovereign or state merely the partition or equitable the river, and actually divide the territory in dis-My friend paused. Smiles were on her lips obliged to look to the possibility of a rupture in the proposal which the undersigned is thus inhe division of the territory between the parties, ble division of the territory between the parties, pute between the parties by "the middle of the story. I looked round upon her children. Sur strong of the undersigned is thus inhe river, and actually divide the territory in dispute the river, and actually divide the territory in dispute the river, and actually divide the territory in dispute the river, and actually divide the territory in dispute.

The government of the United States will see sovereign or state merely the partition or equitable division of the territory between the parties, pute between the parties by "the middle of the story. I looked round upon her children. Sur story. I looked round upon her children. Sur useful and important; but he stated at the same claim: They will also see in it a proof of the takes for granted the very question in dispute.

The undersigned might content humself in answer to the present proposition, with a referprise and discovery were flashing from Ann Rejetime, very positively and distinctly, that they had readiness of the British government to incur the That under this proposition the very terms of answer to the present proposition, with a referno direct reference to such a rupture; and risk of a great sacrifice for the preservation of submission would contain an express acknowledg, ence to the observations contained in his last The vounger girls cried, 'go on, go on mam- would have been made in the same way, and to their friendly relations with the United States - ment of the right of Great Britain to a partion rote to Mr. Packenham of the 3d ultimo. In ma, and 'what did Mr. Sheafe say?' and 'what the same extent, without regard to the relations it is made in a spirit of moderation and fairness of the territory, and would necessarily preclude that it was plainly intimated not only that there could Miss Kate say?'

of Great British and the United States.

of which the world will judge.

the United States from claiming the whole territory are nother conclusive reasons for declining the I do not remember, my children. It was one He also adverted to the fact that such preparof those rich moments of life when much more is ations as were actually making had been comthe government of the United States will not reretary of State goes on to observe, in the face of been prominently stated, but it was expressly felt than said, but this I know very well, that menced before the relations between the United ject a proposal made with such a friendly intention in the undersigned of 80th August, by asserted as the belief of the President that a-he threw among the children. His face had representations as to the extent of the preparations to other is the portion of territory which in realistical of either party, Great Britain or the United trinsic difficulty of selecting a suitable arbitrathat expression of beaming, paternal happiness, must have been exaggerated. He detied that ity forms the subject of comreversy, compared States, to the whole or to any part of the Oregon tor, as well as other considerations that might which came from the consciousness, that has they related particularly, as I had been informed, with the importance of preserving a state of territory. He must, however, heg leave, with he addiced, is conclusive on the mind of the have formally, advanced a claim to the whole of the arbitrator-whether sovereign, citizen or the Oregon territory, it is no less certain that subject. This reason is, that he does not beadvanced by the Unned States.

ress to be only a part of a wise and prudent sis- unted States, has the honor to acknowledge the government of the United States, as they expect course. But what is the extent of territory in it is altogether probable that the possibility of it that respectful consideration so connectly due ers to the whole territory, subject of course to the avenue through which the commerce of our

In declining this proposition, the President responding to renew to the Hon. I was Buchanan R. PARENHAM

MR. BUCHANAN TO MR. PAUKENHAM. DEPARTMENT OF STATE. Washington, Feb. 4th, 1846.

Bruanic Majosty's Envoy Extraordinary and gent and respectable, The undersigned will take an early opportunity last proposal. This condition is, "that it ners of his high consideration, the orbitrator, to possess a complete title to the The understand has the lioner to renew to whole territory, there should, in that case, be Mr Buchanau the assurance of his distinguished assigned to each that portion of territory which. The Valley or Rascals. Some of our conference was the best, if not the only mode, of mode of sectlement, but it been precuesble, but States, in answer to that which the undersigned ed to a single point, so strong is the natural dis- to its being the sendezvous of regress-it can that in almost every instance, whether of nastealthily up the back stairs, and first entered received from a variety of sources, of the extenhis lodging roum. The door communicating sive warlike preparations making by Great Britwith his parlor was wide open, and through it tan, and the natural inference upon his part that

Under these circumstances, her Majesty's gov
territory should be referred to the arbitration of the Oregon

Compromising award. We have a memorable

territory should be referred to the arbitration of the Oregon

Compromising award. We have a memorable

territory should be referred to the arbitration of the Oregon

Compromising award. We have a memorable

territory should be referred to the arbitration of the Oregon

Notwithstantian that Great Britain. Notwithstanding that the arbihe advanced a little farther, the pictures were Great Britian with all the powers of Europe, they most prudent, and, perhaps, the only leasible step In his answer, the Secretary of State informed trator, under the terms of the submission, was rehung in their places—a little farther still, and could only look to a rupture with the United which could be taken, and the best calculated to the undersigned that his proposition could not clearly and explicitly confined to the decision of he saw Kate Ewing standing on a chair before States on the Oregon question.

* allay the existing effertesence of popular feeling be accepted. That it did not propose to refer which was the line of the highlands described foot-step, once over his threshold, was the wel- to a distant service; or that they were making peace and good will between two such nations. Freference to the observation which he has just President against a reference of this question any addition to the old form of marine. He The undersigned takes advantage of this op- quoted, to remind the United States Secretary of to arbitration, in any form which can be devis-I think there was a slight struggle in Anne stated that the most extensive and formidable portunity to renew to the Hon. James Buchanan State, that if the government of the United States ed, no matter what may be the character of over. A joyous light flashed from her soul as which he thought could hardly be supposed to The Hon. James Bechanan, &c., &c., &c., &c. Great Britain has, in a manner equally formal, lieve the teritorial rights of this nation to be a declared that she, too, has rights in the Oregon proper subject for arbitration. It may be true, territory, meampatible with the exclusive claim, that modes peopler circumstances, if the interthat, under peculiar circumstances, if the inter-The declaration, prising from a conviction e. 1818 at stake were comparatively small, and if qually sincere, will, the undersigned is presuaded, both parties stood upon an equal footiog, there he viewed with the same consideration by the might be no insuperable objection to such a hearly thirteen degrees of latitude slong the disclaimer that they had particular or direct ref. the government of the United States the experimentation is to ascertain from him whether, tains. Without its Finite several powerful and given you!

A pretty family scene followed; a chorns of exclamations, a few tears, many questions, some jokes, on the discarded patch, and a ringing of laughing voices—but here the curtain falls.

The following message and correspondence

disclaimer that they had particular or direct refinite government of the united States on the discarded patch, and a ringing of large to my own opinion upon this subject to the arbitration of some friendly sovereign at the United States government to the United States government to the United States government to me my memoration is to ascertain from min whether, the government of the United States in the government of the United States are expensed to the arbitration of that (the Oregon) territory of the United States government to entertion and prospersion to the arbitration of the United States government to the united states government to enterton no objection to such a course, it would state to originally the embrace of the United States government to the United States government to the united States government to enterton no objection to such a course, it would state to originally the continent, to the supposing the Brings government to enterton no objection to such a course, it would state to originally the continent to the United States government to refer to arbitration of the United States government to refer to arbitration of the United States government to refer to arbitration of the United States government to refer to arbitration of the United States government to refer to arbitration of the United States government to enterton no object to the United States government to enterton no object to the United States government to enterton no object to the United States government to enterton no object to the United States government to enterton no object to the United States government to enterton no object to the United States government to enterton no object to the United States government to enterton no object to the United States government to enterton no object t other difficulties from other quarters in Europe to any proposition emanating from the British the condition that it neither should be found, in Western States can be profitably conducted to any proposition emanating from the British the condition that it neither should be found, in Western States can be profitably conducted to a government, has instructed from the opinion of the arbitrator, to possess a con- with Asia and the western coast of this confinplete title to the whole territory, there should in ent; and its parts, the only harbors belonging of the United States:

In compliance with the request of the House of the kingdom; and, with unabated confidence of the compliance with the request of the kingdom; and, with unabated confidence of the kingdom; and with unabated confidence of the

Neither is the territory in dispute of equal, The President heartly concurs with the Brit- how much the interests of both countries require. Whilst it is invaluable to the United States, it is opinion, is not incompatible with the public in- rious motives of policy, and the result of many ish gavernment in their regret that all attempts an early as well as an amicable and satisfactory of comparatively small importance to Great terest, all correspondence which has passed be- causes; and, without attempting to assign to to settle the Oregon question by negotiation have adjustment of existing deliculture, the under Britain. To her, Oregon would be but a distween the government of Great British and this each its particular influence, I am by no means intherto failed. He cannot, however, concur signed carnesily matter the Secretary of State to tant colonial possession of doubtful value; and government, or between any of the officers of prepared to admit that the apprehension of diffi. with that government in the opinion that a re- take the subject of this note into consideration, which, from the patural progress of homon gsaid government, in relation to the country west culties with the United States had no share in sort to arbitration, and especially on the terms with a view to such an arrangement on the prin- vents, she would not probably long enough enof the Rocky mountains, since the last annual them; and it is very clear that if a rupture with proposed, would be followed by happier conses ciple of arbitration as may seem to the governe joy to derive from it essential benefits; whilst message of the President to the House," has the the United States should grow out of our present quences. On the contrary, he believes that any ment of the United States to be tank just, wise, to the United States it would become an integral and essential portion of the Republic. The The undersigned takes chantage of this op- goin to Great Beitein she would never sensibly feel, whilst the loss to the United States would be irreparable.

The undersigned is perfectly aware that such considerations can have no bearing upon the question of the title of the title of either party. They are presented solely for explaining the views of the President in his relusal to adopt any measure which should willdraw our title The undersigned, Secretary of State of the from the control of the Government and people United States, has the honor to acknowledge the United States, and place it within the disthe receipt of the note of Mr. Packenham, her cretion of any arbitrator, no matter how intelli-

Minister Plempotentiary, dated on the 16th olt. The President cordially concues with the by which he beain proposes a reference of the Government of Great Britain in desiting that Oregon question to orbitration. Under his the present controversy may be amicably adpresent proposition the powers of the achientor justed. Of this, he has given the strongest The undersigned, her Benamic Majesty's en- would not, as in his fast, be finited in terms of proof before the whole world. He believes their few character. You are therefore instructs blow at the commencement, in expectation of voy extraordinary and minister plempotentiary, the division of the territory between the parties that, as there are no two nations on the earth ed to embrace the first opportunity of bringing being thereby enabled to shorten the duration of has had the honor to receive the note of the Sec. and would extend to the question of their cose more closely bound by the ties of commerces. flerting titles. There is, however, a condition so there are none who ought to be more able or dated 27th olimo, containing a proposal for te, annexed to this offer which exposes it to the willing to do each other justice, without the inswer of the undersigned to Mr. Packenham's sion to renew to Mr. Packenham the assurance would, in the epision of the arbitrating Power, exceedingly moral polarcians take a world of he called for by a just appreciation of the re- pleasure in distinguishing Texas as the "Valspective claims of each. It the Government of ley of Roscals," and almost invariably speak of the United States should consent to an arbitra- it as the peculiar theatre of all manner of wicktion upon such a condition, this might and prob- educes and a universal rendezvous of virtues of fably would be construed into an interpotion, it all grades and hues. After making proper al-With an auxious desire to contribute by every but a direct invitation, to the arbitrator to dis lowance for the daring spirit which are always means in his power to a satisfactory conclusion side the territory between the parties. Were found in a new country, will some of these senand, if possible, ascertain their real character. Her majesty's government deeply regret the of the question pending between the parties. Were found in a new country, will some of these sentand object.

JAMES BUCHANAN. Right Hon. RICHARD PACKENHAM,

It will not escape you that upon such a sub- tlement of the conflicting claims by direct nego- Britania. Majesty's cavey extraordinary and training and the subject to arbi- how many more capital crimes have been comminister pleopotentiary, has reflected on the tration, the title, and the title alone, detached mitted in Texas for the last three years, than test and seems, or source; definite official informs. They are still permaded that great advantages contents of the unit offices of the unit of the un tion; and I did not doubt that a fearly personal would have resulted to both parties from such a justant, by the Secretary of State of the United from Winch could be submitted. If not confine very heart of the land of the pigrims? And as of d nole

ter T

enc Mir

cin:

and

Mil

Jon; den icle-u fairs

they deer ters inde ingn the . reali with iract Mon erer of R Den whig friends may possibly have heard, did not to shift the cards to win the game! The incidents will come of the Lowell Factories, is writing letchalk upon his door before absconding—G. T. dents surrounding the late correspondence, or This Canton is in a very agitated state. The grand ters to Wm. C. Rives of Virginia upon the two countries are the fourth day of March next, under the twition of Mr.

That game is at an end. He would have rather the circumstances that called for its discouncil has taken measures for having a new Constisubject of a Protective Tariff. This is all
If F. Parsons, our late useful Teacher, the fourth day of March next, under the twition of Mr.
That game is at an end. He would have rather the circumstances that called for its disbeen just as safe at home as in Texas; he has closure, forbid any doubt of this being true.—
tion. The country is in any thing but a tranquil state, right, if it is right for any man to defend govgone to Havanna. We trust our whig friends, And this is not the first instance in our political, Several arrests have been made. will remember this. [Hampden Post.

OXFORD DEMOCRAT.

PARIS, FEBRUARY 24, 1846.

TOWN OFFICERS.

As the time is near at hand when the several Towns in their stead. Look to all these matters.

on our Democratic friends the importance of securing they will be found." at least a majority of the officers.

It is true that Whitegery seems now to be well night extinct; but it only waits for the opportunity to grasp the roins, and then it will ride with all its wonted soverity. To keep the Whig, or Federal party, and their principles (which have been so often condemed as inimical to the true interests of the people) in proper subjection, requires a steady watchful course on the ter news. part of the Democracy as will prevent their gaining such, seemingly, slight advantages as the carrying of our Municipal Elections. But these elections are, in truth, the political out-pasts in party warfare, and if fears for the estadel.

Then let us enjoin upon our friends the importance of securing "good men and true" to preside at our titute poor is becoming, as was expected, a frightful hear from often, but in publishing second headed arafter their political and peconony intercets.

A too great neglect to our Municipal Elections has been the common course of the Democratic party-a neglect which has undoubtedly grown out of a dele- and usual formalities. gerous, and should not be practised towards an unre. the United States, in respect of the territory on the and eight whigs, if not more. Mr. J. M. Ciayton's such generous confidence.

Look to this, Democrats; and do not allow your. invites unseitled. ness and inactivity.

ery of desapp acted and dangerous men to gratify the intention of reducing to a nominal amount. ambition and aviewe of his government in the settle- The European Times of Feb. 4th, in conventing. The decree of the Assembly is then given as ment of a great automat question.

can be placed in the hour of peril.

From the Washington Times of Feb. 11. "STRANGE CIRCUMSTANCE."

sed of all that had transpired, and by some party, in whose assurances they had confidence.

The Democrats, wholly in the dark—ignorant of say single fact to which their opponents broadly hinted, and which the call on the President States as amicable and business.

Disturbances of a serious character have taken place in some of the counties, and several arrests have been in some of the counties, and several arrests have been in some of the counties, and several arrests have been in some of the counties, and several arrests have been in some of the counties, and several arrests have been in some of the counties, and several arrests have been in some of the counties, and several arrests have been in some of the counties.

Fasce.—Nows from Algiers is of the usual character have taken place in the succession of the counties are the place.

Fasce.—Nows from Algiers is of the usual character have taken place in the succession of the counties are the place.

The transpired, and by some party, in with the United States as amicable and business had been successive.

Work at $8 a Day. The Washington if the Wind Pro-Busines Tubes—

Indicate the Longe—Food Pro-Attents and Longs, with the Longe—Food Pro-Attents and Longs, Ref.

Union of the 4th informs the people how build their Representatives work for eight dollars a time.

Chapter 2. Anatomy of the Chést and Longs, with Longe—Food Pro-Attents and Longs, Ref.

Union of the 4th informs the people how build Pro-Attents and Venus of the Longe—Food Pro-Attents and Venus of the Wind Pro-Busines and Venus of the Wind Pro-Busines and Longs, Ref.

Chapter 2. Anatomy of the Chést and Longs, with Longe—Food Pro-Attents and Longs, with Longe—Food Pro-Attents and Longs, Ref.

Chapter 2. Anatomy of the Chést and Longs, with Longe—Food Pro-Attents and Longs, Ref.

Longs, Ref.

Chapter 2. Anatomy of the Wind Pro-Busines and Longs of the Wind Pro-Busines and Longs of the Union of the 4th informs the people how build pro-Attents and Longs of the Longs—Food Pro-Attents and Longs of the Lon the American people think of this? Can they has alloaded very general saturation.

The railways in operation in France are very properties.

The railways in operation in France are very properties.

The railways in operation in France are very properties.

The railways in operation in France are very properties.

The railways in operation in France are very properties.

The railways in operation in France are very properties.

The railways in operation in France are very properties.

The railways in operation in France are very properties.

The railways in operation in France are very properties.

The railways in operation in France are very properties.

The railways in operation in France are very properties.

The railways in operation in France are very properties.

The railways in operation in France are very properties.

The railways in operation in France are very properties.

The railways in operation in France are very properties.

The railways in operation in France are very properties.

The railways in operation in France are very properties.

The railways in operation in France are very properties.

The railways in operation in France are very properties.

The railways in operation in France are very properties.

The railways in operation in France are very properties.

The railways in operation in France are very properties.

The railways in operation in France are very properties.

The railways in operation in France are very properties.

The railways in operation in France are very properties.

The railways in the railways in operation in the Monarchy to colourze our free soil, and on it cast non-to-be sunk in the bottom of the sea.

A new "new-line Map" plot. A Cagnation of the sea.

Creek a " balance of power" to check the spread.

Spars.—Madeid, Jan. 21th. The great and again the paper presents a new British claim to Ores.

Roton, and sold to writte knoksplies and dealer to make public to the first to Ores.

history, of partizans colluding with the Minister | Gensians. Berlin, Jun. 23. Matters are pretty pocket. His letters remind one of Mr Biddle's of a foreign power, engaged in scheming for much as usual, and nothing particular is stirring.— famous epistles in defence of the old Bank and advantage in diplomacy, to truffic and scheme The government intends putting down all gambling they met with about the same favor from the To the Honorable County Commissioners Court to be away their country's honor and rights. The houses. period of the Ashburton Treaty was celebrated | ITALY .- In Naples, and elsewhere, railways are in from the head of the institution which "regulatin this State will meet to make choice of their Officers. State pride, as to unite with the enemy of their of our government is to have all Catholics converted and embarked it in manufacturing. for the ensuing year, we would suggest the import- institutions. in treasonous plots to subserve the to the Greek Church. To bring about conversion all ance of a rigid accountability, on the part of officers safety, honor, welfare, and durability of their measures are employed.

We often see articles in the papers headed Number rive (known as the Megalloway road)—also who have been in power for the past year, to the el
We often see articles in the papers headed Number rive (known as the Megalloway road)—also who have been in power for the past year, to the el
Government? Such men are but one short In Caucasus there seems to have been several en
The Duty of the Whigs,' a subject on which the road from Letter B.—all of said roads are out of they should know the true amount, that the proper pro- ure as tratorious in their bearts as the Tory alvision may be made for speedy liquidation-for it is lies in New England, who, in the war, held out bad noticy for towns long to remain in debt when the in blue-lights " to the British forces, and signalmeans of payment are as easily to be obtained as at ed them to ports of safety. They are more to published at Paris, Me., there is a story placed under gives the following as a part of the discription the present time; and if the old board of officers have be feared than ten thousand fold their number the following caption:not managed with proper skill and fidelity, it is but of British soldiers in the panoply of war; and, just that they should be displaced and others elected if a contest of arms should, unfortunately, result from this protracted and ill-natured dispute Nor can we (as the conductor of a public press) do for soil and dominion, these partisans now give our duty, as we understand it, without impressing up- the country the strongest intimation of where And at the conclusion is the signature, Louis.

FOREIGN NEWS.

ARRIVAL OF THE CAMBRIA.

The Royal Mail Steamer arrived at East Boston on Wednesday night last at 11 o'clock, in a little less!

Meetings are being held throughout England for we yield them to the opposition we may have just the immediate repeal of the Corn Laws, instead of ceive original articles, upon any topic soited to the whether it such souls were well sanded, they waiting for the ministerial term of three years.

important elections; men who will look carefully both source of fever and disease. An increase of fever pa- ticles we prefer making our own selections .- Ed. Den. tients has taken place in the hospital at Fermoy, solves to be shorn of your strength by the fair prom- You may be assured that no effort consistent with ises of these whose trule is the abuse of political pow- national honor shall be wanting on my part to bring Yugaran Declaration. The New Orcr. Neither neglect so great a duty through careless. this question to an early and peaceful termination." leans Bulletin publishes the official declarathe country, was introduced in a four hours' speech in claimed by the Legislative Assembly. It de-We invite the attention of our readers to the the House of Commons on the 27th uit. In that speech clares that the only compact of union and friend- Foster to Miss Mercy Davis. If the facts therein contained are true, as they un. fiscal condition of the country, and announced the re- the Mexican Republic has been broken; that Cortis, of Woodstock, to Miss Irene D. Young, of the 1809, situated in said Demark, containing one hundred and ten acres, more or less,—the above Mortgage Deed doubtedly are, it seems to or that some leading mem. duction of duty on a number of articles which press, the faith sworn to, has been violated on the bers of the Wing party are guilty of that kind of pa- upon the commercial and agricultural interests. He part of Mexico; and that the time is near for litical periody that folia net far short of actual treason; impressed upon the manufacturers the necessity of sundering the connection which has hitherto exwhile the British Minister has shown himself capable preparing for the advent of free trade, by giving up isted. The Mexican government is to be reof descending from the elevated position of an honor. whatever hanted amount of protection they now enjoy garded by Yucatan us foreign, having no right able deplomatest to that of a mere mercenary tool of his from foreign competition in the shape of prohibitory whatever to interfere with it, and its orders and government, willing to take advantage of the treach. duties; and the duties so imposed he announced his dispositions, say the Manifesto, should be nn-upon this new measure of Peel, says:-" Looking at follows : But, if we can confound the course of the British the question, then, in every point of view, taking into Minister, how much more severely might we to con- account the present position of parties, the advent of a down those of our own extrems who have been quitty general election, the flesh of triumph which mantles. of contents; with him and helping the concest plans the checks of the free testless, the gloon and anger al Government. to roll us of our territory, and to tarnish our national. Which rough in the face of the protectionists—viewing the state of the registry, the combition of the food Read the following, and then judge who are the market, our relations with the United States, the abfriends to the country, and upon which party reliance sence of all excitement except on the great question of fice trade-we arrive at the conclusion, not only that Sie R. Peel will pass his new Turiff trampliantly that that he will do so in the present Parinageat."

The new policy of the United States, as indicated a It may not seem strange to others, occus in the report of the American Secretary of the Treast lence. tomed to the devious ways of political diplom- usy, has commanded much attention in the British wonder, that the facts of the late recressional- part in the great speech in which he introduced the shall swear to abide by this decree, which shall be in result of sealing or and experience of the shall swear to abide by this decree, which shall be introduced the shall swear to abide by this decree, which shall be introduced the shall swear to abide by this decree, which shall be introduced the shall swear to abide by this decree, which shall be introduced the shall swear to abide by this decree, which shall be introduced the shall swear to abide by this decree, which shall be introduced the shall swear to abide by this decree, which shall be introduced the shall swear to abide by this decree, which shall be introduced the shall swear to abide by this decree, which shall be introduced the shall swear to abide by this decree, which shall be introduced the shall swear to abide by this decree, which shall be introduced the shall swear to abide by this decree, which shall be introduced the shall swear to abide by this decree, which shall be introduced the shall swear to abide by this decree, which shall be introduced the shall swear to abide by this decree, which shall be introduced the shall swear to abide by this decree, which shall be introduced the shall be introduced the shall swear to abide by this decree, which shall be introduced to the shall swear to abide by this decree, which shall be introduced to the shall swear to abide by this decree, which shall be introduced to the shall swear to abide by this decree, which shall be introduced to the shall be int ence between Mr. Secretary Buchanan and new Tariff; and subsequently at the request of Lord to published and circulated. Minister Pakenhum, should all have been dis- M ateagle, the Government consented to reprint the Polace of the Assembly of Yucatan, Merida, closed to certain prominent Whig members, decument, and place it on the tables of both Houses January, 1st 1846. and by them ched not to their rank and file, of Parliament. All these facts prove the desire which Signed by Miguel Barbachano, President Signed by Miguel Barbachano, Preside dent for the papers. The Whigs were appri- tiens with the United States as amicable and business

This is certainly a very strange state of af- actor. Marchings and counter-marchings; attacks on: "It is worthy of remark, that the debute on Linguist 3. Decourses and Character and Ch tracted dispute, involving our limor, interests. It is proposed to establish ratiway communication tives. and rights-involving the right of a European between England France by means of a tunnel, in of Republicanism -- involving the triumph of the bag event of the present moment is a message to the gon. It is founded upon the discovery in Democratic principle or the spread of Monais Queen, got up by some opposition departes, protest. Montreal, Canada, of van astronomer" named thy -- has in his confidence and for his coursel- and against the proposed charings with her uncle the David Thompson who asserts that he explored be so no longer. Judge Garland, of whom our and intrigues, and with whom he advises how tizan, has been tried, convicted, and condemned to | Mr Abhott Lawrence of Boston, the owner for the similar treachery of leading Whigs. | progress, but the Pope will not hear of them in his ed the exchanges" and business of the country "Was there ever a party of publicians known States. He thinks them an invention of the devil. by distributing both, Mr Lawrence we bein any country on the face of the earth, save | Rossia .- St. Petersburg, Jan. 16. The Emperor lieve was a thorough-zoing friend of free trade American Federalists, so lost to patriorism and has returned from his visit to Italy. One great object before he withdrew his capital from communed by the County road as travelled from or near J. State pride, as to pole with the enemy of their of our government is to have all Calleding converted and embarked it in manufacturing.

cetors, that they may know the true state of their cor- step from the ranks of an enemy armed to bat- gagements between the Russian forces and the mount there appears to be much difference of opinion; repair and massie, and public good requires that they

PLAGIARISM ON A HIGH SCALE.

"In the last two numbers of the 'Oxford Democrat.'

[WRITTEN FOR THE DEMOCRAT.] DEBBY LINCOLN.

A VILLAGE STORY.

Now bating the top line, ' Written for the Democrat,' than 14 1-2 days from England, bringing 31 days la- resented that it was original. We published it as and to answer the purpose completely; every there appear and shew cause, if any they have, why the original, but while putting it in type, most of which inne, having a soul of this sort, being compe-prayer of said Petition should not be granted. We have not room for a full account of the news was done by ourself, we discovered indications that lent to scratch along without risk of accident, We have not room for a full account of the news was done by ourself, we discovered indications that tent to scratch along without risk of accident. A true copy of said Petition and Order of a count thereon. There are many slippery souls in this world 6w41 Attest-J. G. COLE, Cherk. confirmation of our doubts we knew not. The Free- whom it is impossible to keep in apright coursman has afforded a solution. We are pleased to re- es, and the query, therefore, presents itself, character of our paper, for publication, and have some itoo, would move onward without deviating from The use of diseased potatoes in Ireland by the dest correspondents whom we highly esteem and hope to the right line of propriety. Neal's Gazette.

On the 22d of January, Parliament was appeared by Nortice in the Senate. The Washington corthe Queen in person with the customary ceremonies, respondent of the N. Y. Commercial Advertiser, says the epinion on the 18th was that the Senate would eacy of feeling to the minority, the manly spirit of In relation to the Oregon question the Queen says: " pass the notice, in a modified form, with great unawhich we cannot but admire, but its indulgence is dan. "I regret the conflicting claims of Great Bettin and minity. Mr. Calhoon will undoubtedly vote for it, much good." leating political fie who have never fuled to abuse North Western Coast of America, although they have speech gives the tone to the opinions of the Clay wing been made the subject of repeated negotiation still re- of the wing party on this subject. It puts the administration, at least, presumptively right."

> Sie Robert Peel's plan for the fiscal regeneration of the ladependence of Yucaian, as probe took an elaborate we well the fiscal condition of the ship which has notted Xucatan to the rest of

ART. 1. Yucatan is no longer under obligation to obey or recognise the Supreme Nation-

Anr. 2. By the preceding article Yucatan has resumed its former fullers of right in the most solemer manuer-of which right the nation will avail itself according to its convenience.

ART. 3. The existing Assembly will continne to exercise its functions, in order to direct, with the promitted that is due to the peaple of Yucutan, such measure as may be necney by this merulian, but to us it is a matter of Parliament. Sir Robert Peelspake highly of the Reserved person, in authority in the pation AGEMENT AND CURE, adapted to popular use.

fairs. The Executive and his cubinet, while the Arabs, seizing of flacks and destruction corn, have the Oregon resolutions seems so for to have better Anne to treatment of Concernition. fairs. The Executive and his cubinet, while the armos, seeing or accession compared the trace of the armos, and disaster has palled on the appetites of members, that a Chapter 6. Varieties Personal Palmonty Disease—Payer deem the public inverse demands this fostion, before one expedition. The soldiers were assailed great number of them declare to remain in the knowledge of our foreign relations, in must by a saw storm of tremendations violence in the destance of the first second the foreign relations of the compact of the first second the foreign of the destance of the first second the foreign of the first second first second the foreign of the foreign of the foreign of the foreign of the first second the foreign of the first second th the knowledge of one foreign relations, in matters of the knowledge of one foreign relations, in matters of the knowledge of one foreign relations, in matters of the knowledge of one foreign relations, in matters and great magnitudes. They lost their way and had to pass the might of clock to-day, only such according to the control of improdence, if not recklessness—we were about manage and manage and manage.

The news from the River Plate of the defeat of for the action of Congress on a subject which Diet.—Exercise—tomory Wash some one in his close confidence. What do Resar by the combined forces of England and France, or copies so much of their feelings and their in the defeat of the confidence. What do Resar by the combined forces of England and France, or copies so much of their feelings and their in the defeat of the defeat of the confidence of the combined forces of England and France, or copies so much of their feelings and their in the defeat of the defeat of the defeat of the confidence of the confidence of the confidence of the defeat of the confidence of the defeat of the confidence of the confidence of the defeat of the confidence of the confidence of the defeat of the confidence of the defeat of the confidence of the confidence lots, more boasting to be Americans, and occuse Cosate Trapant.

The country of the Columbia river as early as ser & Berker, Jone Bloker, District, Cosate Trapant.

The country of the Columbia river as early as ser & Berker, Jone Bloker, District, Charles P.

Pack, M. Hammond, Romay, Hall & Dow, Const. Trapant.

Pack, M. Hammond, Romay, Hall & Dow, Const. Trapant.

Pack, M. Hammond, Romay, Hall & Dow, Const. Trapant.

Pack, M. Hammond, Romay, Hall & Dow, Const. Trapant.

Pack, M. Hammond, Romay, Hall & Dow, Const. Trapant.

Pack, M. Hammond, Romay, Hall & Dow, Const. Trapant.

Pack, M. Hammond, Romay, Hall & Dow, Const. Trapant.

Pack, M. Hammond, Romay, Hall & Dow, Const. Trapant.

Pack, M. Hammond, Romay, Hall & Dow, Const. Trapant.

Pack, M. Hammond, Romay, Hall & Dow, Const. Trapant.

Pack, M. Hammond, Romay, Hall & Dow, Const. Trapant.

Pack, M. Hammond, Romay, Hall & Dow, Const. Trapant.

Pack, M. Hammond, Romay, Hall & Dow, Const. Trapant.

Pack, M. Hammond, Romay, Hall & Dow, Const. Trapant.

Pack, M. Hammond, Romay, Hall & Dow, Const. Trapant.

Pack, M. Hammond, Romay, Hall & Dow, Const. Trapant.

Pack, M. Hammond, Romay, Hall & Dow, Const. Trapant.

Pack, M. Hammond, Romay, Hall & Dow, Const. Trapant.

Pack, M. Hammond, Romay, Hall & Dow, Const. Trapant.

Pack, M. Hammond, Romay, Hall & Dow, Const. Trapant.

Pack, M. Hammond, Romay, Hall & Dow, Const. Trapant.

Pack, M. Hammond, Romay, Hall & Dow, Const. Trapant.

Pack, M. Hammond, Romay, Hall & Dow, Const. Trapant.

Pack, M. Hammond, Romay, Hall & Dow, Const. Trapant.

Pack, M. Hammond, Romay, Hall & Dow, Const. Trapant.

Pack, M. Hammond, Romay, Hall & Dow, Const. Trapant.

Pack, M. Hammond, Romay, Hall & Dow, Const. Trapant.

Pack, M. Hammond, Romay, Hall & Dow, Const. Trapant.

Pack, M. Hammond, Romay, Hall & Dow, Const. Trapant.

Pack, M. Hammond, Romay, Hall & Dow, Const. Trapant.

Pack, M. Hammond, Romay, Hall & Dow, Const. Trapant.

Pack, M. Hammond, Romay, Hall & Dow, Const. Trapant.

Pack, M. Hammond, Romay, Hall & Dow, Const. Trapant.

Pack

Perment favoritism which puts money in his obtain rooms as herefolire JOHN TRIPP, Secretary. li Whigs that was extended to the productions porate finances. If they are in debt, it is important ter down and blot out Republicanism. They tained for said the resulting generally in favor of the Russians, but whatever may be their duty, it is evidently ishould be nested and the request your Honors to assess a sufficient tax on said their destiny to be in a minority.

> An advertisement in a Massachusetts paper, of a runaway apprentice. He is thickset, usually wears a glazed bat five feet high, and iron shoes with cross eyes,' and the signature, Louisa, it is from the alpha to the should suppose, to think of such a thing,—has touching the matter set forth in said petition, Ordered, omega, the story in the Rose of Sharon for 1844, by shoes for slippery weather—the latest invention. That said Petitioners give notice thereof by causing an Miss S. C. Edgarton, pp. 242-277. The Editor has —with 'sanded soles,' which render a tumble attested copy of said petition and of this Order of Court probably been imposed upon by some literary light-on the ice out of the question, and enable the Age, printed at Augusta in the County of Kennebec, fingered lass."—Christian Freeman, Boston, Mass.

SANDED SOLES.

Ay, that we have. The story was handed to us in while other people are slipping and sliding in the Uxford Democrat, printed at said Paris, the wearer to walk about with perfect impunity, last publication in each of said papers to be at least thirty days before the next term of this Court to be holden to the people are slipping and sliding in the Uxford Democrat, printed at said Paris, the wearer to walk about with perfect impunity, last publication in each of said papers to be at least thirty days before the next term of this Court to be holden to the people are slipping and sliding in the Uxford Democrat, printed at said Paris, the wearer to walk about with perfect impunity. manuscript, and the individual who presented it rep- all directions. These soles are the real grit, at Paris in and for said County on the second Tuesday > between of Nashna, N. H., have introduced the Hunga. Prence is had for further description; to secure the paycian Balsam into the Almskouse in that town, with date thereof with interest. And whereas the conditions great benefit to the poor invalids.

Thomas M. Hunt, Esq., of Auburn, N. Y , says :-

A Newell, Fog , Postmaster at West Brookfield, Mass says: We find this Balsam gaining celebrity as it be comes known, and people come a great distance for it. Pamphlets respecting this Great English Remedy ony be had gratis of MOSES HAMMOND, only agent

MARRIED.

In Buckfield, by Joseph Turner, Esq., Mr. Joel

In Bridgion, Calvin F. Brigham, aged 28. In East Rumford, Rufus Virgin, child of D. G. Ab bott, aged 3.

> -JUST PUBLISHED-GREAT MEDICAL RE-PRINT.

First American. from the Tenth English Edition SELF MANAGEMENT AND CURE OF

Pulmonary Consumption, AND ALL DISEASES OF THE CHEST AND LUNGS. BY W. T. BUCHAN, M. D.

Of London, England.

With a Portrait of the Amber, and Engentings illustrative of the Austrony of the Lings. PRICE ONLY 25 CENTS.

resorty for the country in its security and de- ATOMY OF THE CHEST AND LUNGS on online of the Line of the Lungles of the Lungl Astimat, and Commartions in are not of his NEW AND POWNREUL REMIDY sand theories to SELF MAN-

To open lemmal Physicians and Sorgonas of the ago. TABLE OF CONTENTS.

Sand my stone. Dr. Burhan truly the larre, that water three pinle tour, a Consumptive patient may do more for him-self than any ordinary physican can do, by any of the Price only 23 cross per Copy whit would discount to the ande. Agents for the Sale of the Work.

in diamental based Stars.

Mchrom Academy.

holden at Paris for and within the Co, may of Oeford the third I wesday of December, 1845, by adjourn-

E the undersigned respectfully represent to Four from Andover line through Andover North Surplus, Letter C Surplus, and Letter B to New Usmpshire line Andover to New Hampshire line, through Letter B. and townships, viz: - Andover North Surplus, Letter C. Surples, Letter B Number Five First Range, as will put all of said rands in good repair for carriages, &c.

As in daty bound, &c. JOHN LOMBARD & 5 others. Anduver, Dec. 1, 1845.

STATE OF MAINE.

Oxegan, ss Court of County Commissioners, December Term, 1845, by adjournment.

Somebody in Boston—a queer soul, we Note that the Petitioners ought to be heard

Notice of Foreclosure.

HERE'S JUEL PARKBURST, of Norway, in the County of Oxford, by his deed of Morigage. hearing date January twentieth, A. D. 1813, and recorded with Oxford Records Book 65, page 494, conveyed to the undersigned certain premises therein described. TP Important sacrs for Consumptives: The Section which Devil of Morigage, recorded as aforesaid, refful said Deed of Mortgage have been and now are beeken, the undersigned hereby gives public notice to fore. The Ilalsam is in high repute with us, and is doing close the same, according to the Statute in such case

ARABELLA CARTER. Feb. 7th, 1846

Notice of Foreclosure.

HEREAS CYRUS ISCALLS, of Deumark in the County of Oxford and State of Maine, on the seventh day of May, A. D. 1837, by his Deed of Mortgage of that date, conveyed to me, the subscriber, a cerand lying on the easterly side of Granger Pond, and being the some land said Ingalls purchased of Parson Pingree by deed dated August 8th, 1836, containing about ten and one half acres, more or less. Also mother lot In Greenwood, by Rev. J. T. Tenney, Mr. Edmord alls, late of Bridgion, in the month of March. A. D. and ten acres, more or less,—the above Mortgage Dred bring recorded in Oxford Western District Registry, Book 18. Pages 292 & 203. And whereas the condition of the sant Marigage having been broken, I hereby claim possession of said mortgaged premises, and give this public notice to foreclose the same, agreeably to the Statute in such case made as ' provided

Denmark, February 4th, 1840. 41

Administrator's Sale.

Probate for the County of Oxford, I shall sell at PUBLIC AUCTION.

iat the dwelling house of Joseph Whitman, in Woodsteph, in said county, on Saturday, the fourteenth day of March next, at his clock A. M., so much of the Real Estate of HARRISON WHITMAN, late of said Woodstock, deceased, as will produce the som of eix hundred duliars, for the payment of the debis of said dewased and medental charges.

Said tral retate consists of the deceased's interest in the interestent farm on which he last lived, being about one hundred and forty-seven acres of land.

Also—the reversion of the Widow's Dower in said homestead.

Alm-the right in equity of the deceased to redeem the Farm and Lot that Harvey Bowker now lives on, the same having been mortgaged to Thomas Crucker by the Torms made known at the time of sale G W CUSHMAN, Administrator, Woodstock, Jan'y 6, 1846.

JJSEPE C. OCLE,

Counsellor at Law.

PARIS, ME.

Han tesumed the prostice of Law. is G w31

PRENTISS & RAWSON, Attornies and Councillors at Law. BANGOR, MAINE.

mrofice at the East End of Strickland's new Bleek over II J Plagg's Store.

Il I. Porure a.

J F RAWWA Nov. 11, 1845

THE subscriber hereby gives public audice to all convenged, that he has been duly appended and taken upon housed the two to Administrator of the cause of January 20, 1846.

Sherill's Notice,

Cotoners in the County of Deford that he had been duly readmented and Commissioned as Surrill of said County of Oxford.

Waterford, January 25th 1840. W. ROBINSON.

1000 WANTED intendictely in payment for the Democrat, Advertising, &c.

BY PANNY FORESTER. I am a little maiden. Who fain would touch the lyre:

But my poor fingers ever, Bring discord from the wire. 'Tis strange I'm not a poet; There's music in my heart; Some mystery must linger About this angel art.

I'm told that joyous spirits, Untouched by grief or care, In mystery so holy Are all too light to share. My heart is very gladsome; But there's a corner deep, Where many a shadow nestles, And future sorrows sleep.

I hope they 'll not awaken. As yet for many a year: There's not on earth a jewell, That's worth one grief-born tear. Long may the heart be silent. If sorrow's touch alone, Upon the cords descending, Ilas power to wake its tone.

I'd never be a poet, My bounding heart to lush, And lay down at the altar, For sorrow's foot to crush, Ab, no! I'll gather sunshine, For coming evening's hours: And while the spring-time lingers, I'll garner up its flowers.

I fain would learn the music Of those who dwell in heaven; For woe-tuned harp was never To scraph fingers given. But I will strive no longer To waste my heart-felt mirth: I will mind me that the gifted, Are the stricken ones of earth

From the Sunday Mercury. SHORT PATENT SERMONS.

HY DOW, JR.

You may find my text somewhere in these

Slayer or stain, it matters not, We struggle-perish-are forgot The earth grows green above the gone, And the calm Heaven looks sternly on.

My hearers-I don't see what we have to could give no answer. feel proud of. We are nothing but detached "Well," said Peter, "they brought back masses of common clay, possessing power of 29 knives; you will find it in Ezra i, 9," locomotion, and imbned with thought and feeling:—avalanches of humanity—rolling down. Nor Particulan. A grave looking citizen on Thestay of November, A. D. 1-15, the n and there, life's hill with increased velocity, into the dark in a Quaker's dress, being called as a witness. Norway, in said Courty of Oxford, Bfacksouth, in a vale of death! Coming congrations—approach in D. 1. vale of death! Coming generations—approain Butler county, (Pennsylvania,) was asked by ching mighty throngs with low, incessent thunder and a perfect rush like flocks of sheep or herds of buff-does—are crowding and tumbling the clerk which is said to have disturbed, for a

Norway, in said country of Oxford, Banksandia, in a

Consumption, and Consumption, an Then my friends, of what have we to feel so almig'ty proud! Of a fine, noble appearance? -so may a leopard or a peacock. Of riches? -they are ours but for a day: Old ocean has them forever, and yet he belinves just as he would without them. Of reason intellect and understanding?-they are the gifts of God, and we nuglit to feel ashamed of ourselves that we make no better use of them. Of superiority over all other beasts? Git out! the lion licked the unicorn in a fair fight, and then went about his business as though nothing had happened. Had one of us accomplished such a victory, we should have thrust our hands in our breech. AND the last medicine known to ment of Ashan of every es pockets—thrown back the head—put for- A stage, Last complaints, Bandatio, Influence, Courte, Colds, Blanding of the Lange, Stephens of Bacatle, pains and ward the breast and belly—given a stride that weakness in the sale, breast, &c., and all other streets of the would have reaced half way to Oregon-straddled pyramids-puffed out the checks, and let off steam, gas and wind enough for forty steam- a tery requests and access over the boats, as many balloons, and an extensive windmill. The matter is, we have nothing really to be proud of, but truth, honesty, and justice; and these articles are so very scarce, that most one in a thousand can adjust his cravat, included by a state of the file of the following state and the file of the file and included by a state of the file of the following state and the file and included by a state of the file and included by the following state and the following state and the following state of the following state and the file and included by the following state of the following sta

My friends—as says the text, we struggle; after ever known reach had faded to produce the desired. The account of members, case or could have will be struggle to stem the tide of adverse fortunestruggle to get above one another-struggle to get married; and then, (too frequently) like a -struggle with the devil all through life—and at last have a desperate struggle with Death:

Foolish beings! We take time by the coats last have a desperate struggle with the might of a magget, and tail, pull back with the might of a magget, and imagine we can hold birm in his impetuous cast free more of the properties. The structure of the properties reer! We strip pleasure to the skin—take her clock, bunnet, bustle and all—rob her of are, nevery a pert. Till E.

The County of the skin—take her clock, bunnet, bustle and all—rob her of are, nevery a pert. Till E.

The County of the skin are the skin are the skin, as do most of the area of the skin, as do most of the area of the skin, as do most of the area of the skin, as do most of the skin, as do most of the skin are supported by this medical, at the relation of the skin and has a figurest said. It is then and has a figurest said. It is then and has a figurest said. cloak, trock, bunnet, bustle and all—rot her of an according per THE.

Fracture, on Manday, the second and all and according to the same and then say there is no such that are the same and then say there is no such that are the same and the same and the say appear of the area and the same a thing as pleasure in the world! We extinguish the torch that hope holds in her hand, & follow lightning bugs into a mud-puddle. By superlative folly, you frighten happiness from your firesides, and then say she has "left your bed and board without cause or provocation."—
Thus man makes hills to tire himself with in climbing—produces darkness to gramble about—creates corns to swear at—and puts difficulties in his path in order that he may struggle with them. Well, my friends, if you can't move without first setting fire to your shirts. all The state of the s

Paroof. We live hardly long enough for a man' to count sixy (provided he count but one a year)—and then we creep under ground—thro' a subterranean passage that leads to—the Lord knows where. We perish, and a monument, perchauce, more enduring than human flesh, marks the spot where we rest, but that falls like all things earthly—and then we are forgotten. Whether slayer or slain, lord or loafer, there we lie! and the children of future generations will pitch pennies, or shoot marbles upon our graves, as unconciously as church mice make and rest incir nests with the leaves of prayer books and the above work is got up in better style than only the above work is got up in better style than only this got a subscriber. The above work is got up in better style than only the work still more valuable and attractive the coming the more valuable and attractive the comi graves, as unconciously as church mice make subscribers. Terms $1.50 per year, or 10 cents for no their nests with the leaves of prayer books and bibles. The earth will still grow green above as serenely as ever—and the world will wag on as usual. So goes man—vaio, conceited, pompous man—a mere toy and plaything of Time into the unflathound depths of Eternity—As in the tenpins that fall by the skill of the bowlier, so let us say of those that are knocked by the cudgel of Death—'Set'em up again,'— So mote it be.

Qualifications of an Editor. He must is the state of the must in the part of the must in the part of the angle of the must in the part of the superior of the spath that the world will wag on a sueful and interesting perceived to the youth of our country,—one that, while a stall amuse, shell also mid-attentive works as the place of the sight country,—one that, while a stall amuse, shell also mid-attentive works as the place of the sight country,—one that, while a stall amuse, shell also mid-attentive works as the place of the sight country,—one that, while a stall amuse, shell also mid-attentive works take the place of the sight and instructive works take the place of the sight and instructive works take the place of the sight and instructive works take the place of the sight and instructive works take the place of the sight and instructive works take place of the sight and instructive works take the place of the sight and instructive works take the place of the sight and instructive works take the place of the sight and instructive works take place of the sight and instructive the coming works the place of the sight and instructive the coming take the place of the sight and instructive the coming take the place of the sight and inst possess the constitution of a horse, the obstine- clear and condensed views of political statistics, institutive right double pages of reading matter, and be illustrated yer, endurance of a starying anaconda, impudence of a heggar, spunk of a chicken-cock, pertinactly of a dun, and entire resignation to the worst of all earthly treadmills.

So says an "exchange paper." It might good temper, a faculty of doing nine things at mance, with historical sheller of various tribes, from once, skill to read the most illegible manuscripts, the time the Europeans first landed upon these shares leisure at all times, and a great knack of going till the present time sections are during the prominent sources from which our rooms will be hilled. And the without his dinner while wanting upon the iereg- somees from which our pages will be hird. And the ularities of the mail. I New York Community this work to designed mainly for touth, it is intended ularities of the mail. [New York Commercial that it shall be to conducted that the youth who takes

Question for Question .- A clergyman in Sterlingshire, catechising a number of his parishoners, asked a man by the name of Peter, " How many years did the children of Israel sojourn in the wilderness?"

To which he replied,-

" Forty years," "But can you tell me, Sir," said Peter, " how many knives the children of Isreal bro't back with them from Babylon to Jerusalem? The clergyman paused and pondered, but

A bustle on a young lady is intended to answer the purpose of the tail of a kite. Its object is to keep the giddy things steady.

WISTAR'S BALSAM

wild Cherry,

THE GREAT REMEDY

CONSUMPTION,

PULMONARY ORGANS. A very nequirement discuse easier what they "Reliand" a next

PERMANENT CURES,

Opinion of a regular Physician.

Exeren. Me . Sept . 20, 1845. couple of wrestlers, help to get each other down TAE'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY for distance of the

PROSPECTUS OF THE Young People's Magazine.

So says an "exchange paper." It might contary and occasionally of other countries, both in- Treus—One dollar and fire containing payabase added to the list of needlals, importaribable statistics of the radical dollars, from Maine to Texas ble in advance. To clabs, as before, when payments and from New York to Observe Indian stories of to it and preserves it, shall find it a preasont and valuable computation in muldle life or in old age.

All letters, and ra. Act, should be address to J & WELLMAN, Programor, 118 Nassau series, N. Y.

State of Afaine. Oxione, et.

[ ] In the case of of one Complete of the ford, York, I also in Compenius, Kennetee, Penaberal, Hauseel, Bashiopen, Baldo, Iranbia, and Perentugues or eather of their Deputies; and to the Comstables of any of the Tacons in soul

W.E. Coustant Ver to attach the guests and estate Combelland, Gentleman, to the value of fifty dardare, and common the earl defendant, of he may be found in Johr presidel, to appear before our Justice of car. Western District Court as & to be golden of Paris. within and for our and County of Oxford, on the occfor the next term of the Count to be account to be accounted by the standard of the standard o

A true copy of the Wist and Order of Court them on Most J. G. COLE, Circle

*Idministrator's Sale.

BY pirtue of a Levente describe Court of Production of Islands, S. 1843.
The County of Oxford, well be well at

PUBLIC AUGTION.

part of Bether and contains about poventy his scree of made buown at the time and place of rate

EIMON SEAVLY

Letter of Chemical

Francy, decreased.

Betart, January 2 and 1-46

Great Attraction for the New Year !

QUALIFICATIONS OF AN EDITOR. He must be so and operad before our young readers.

Without birs in party politics, the work will present and fine white paper. Each number will contain farty. The Family Magazine will be published as heretefore on or near the first day of each month, or clear type

Three copis one year, Four Dollars. or only One Dollar a Copy ? "

Is One copy of the Family Magazine and one copy of Robert Morey's Museum, is may sine for youth, edited by the famous " Peter Parley. ) one year, Two dollars if paid in advance. Personnel dealers and agents will be supplied with the above weath at the most liberal discount. All or-BRADIERY, SODEN & CO. 12 School Street, Boston.

GREAT

der and a perfect rush like flocks of sheep or herds of buff loes—are crowding and tumbling as by scores over the fearful precipice. Down we go, boys, with all our greatness and boasted honors l and the peasant ploughman, as he guides his share in after time among our ashes, will not pause to consider whether the theap that wert a kinel will grow any better notatoes.

NORWAY STEEP FALLS.

THE Subscribers would say to their Friends and Costomers, that they have on hard as usual, a

English, French and AMERICAN DRY GOODS:

Such as Buffalo Robes. Caps, Boas and Muffe, Nech Ties, &c., which we pledge ourselves to sell at fair and honest prices, and will endeavor to make all who may favor us with their custom satisfied that we sell thirds, necording to quality, as four, to say the least, as any Store in the County.

3 r We want in exchange for Goods or Cashan 25 tons Pork, 2000 bushe le Beans, Soun bushels Oats, 10 tons Dry Apple, Er tone Clover Seed,

5 bons good Botter, New Milk and Shipping Coress, Corn, Wheat, Rve, Shipping Purs, 2000 Wood Skins, Injoin its Wook, Hules, Shugles and Ciophorels, &c. &c. DENISON & FYLER

1000 bushels Herds Grass Seed.

Norway Kalls, Nor 25, 1:45 N. B. Having mare some different arrangements

N. B. Having mar's some different arrangements with regard to our business, the Notes and accounts due A. C. Benison & Co. must be paid without fail, previous to the first of January, 1846.

DENISON & FYLER.

OMFORD, No.

Supreme Judicial Court. October Term, 1845.

To the Hon. Justices at the Supreme Judicial Court from withings at Pairs within and for the County of PESPECTFULLY expresents Trusting Wather, Let of Rumbard in the County of Oxford, Enquire, that he is served in he visuple of certain Real Estate situated in the County of Oxford as tenant to common with earlier courses anknown to your l'editioner. In wit Anchiver Nerth Su place a cond County of theficial Said Supplies contains by committees blues thousand nine hundred and sixty acres, exclusive of linds receryed, of which and Surplus, your lettinger is erized in be kertally of about his humbred acres, and is also princed of these underided fearin parts of the remainder of the land in and Anderer North Surplus, to tenant in con-markers. And have yet there have not that your description of the char, and have been not the most distinguished bearings as Confirmed and heavy the most distinguished bearings as Confirmed and heavy the most distinguished bearing and heavy the most distinguished bearing to the control of the formation of the f STATE OF MAINE.

Oxford, 88: WESTERN DISTRICT COURT,
November Term, 1845.

List of Letters

EMAINING in the Post Office at PARIS, ME. Pare, M. Brawend, Narra, Roll & Ben Tele Baker Miss Mare T. J. Broke time W. Bennes, Gorge & Borland, Topics, J. Sa Broke A Parks Mrs. Character Basel, Calculated Jacobs F. Sa Broke, Broken, Grand Mare T. J. Broke Line W. Bennes, Grand Roman Mrs. a. Chalacted Jacobs F. Sa Broke, Rushing J. B. Warder B. Broke and B. Broke and B. Broke and F. Broke Mrs. Research Mrs. Long Faller, Natural Parks Broke Mrs. B

DENTISTRY, DENTISTRY.

MILLING, Separating, Chousing and Sering Art. is from Miller J. Front Fred., done by T. H. BROWN, Parce Hop. Principalling with Gold, Bob. Telepote Street Gu Tin Fust. 55 Cleaning set of Levis. 54 String Pevet Levis. $1,00 Work warranted March 32

Hay for Sale!

NOR sale, 25 of 30 TONS FIRST BYTE INTER-VALE HAY. Enquie of F. HEMIS Parce Hill, Der 22 1-15

SAMUEL P. RAWSON, Deputy Sheriff, & Coroner,

PARIS HILL, OXFORD COUNTY. L. All business by Mail, or otherwise quesupty F b 11 1-10.

One Cent Reward! Rannay, on Westernay, December to the trade, except, Linda South. on indented apprendice, to and to the sta-perder by the threspect of the Pear of the Pear of Hautard state in a cover to the by given to a action of persons a ganet harding or trusting and high on on the particular on any account, as I short was not deligated the contraction site of the first part of the state of th

TIMOTHY LUDDEN, ATTORNEY AT LAW. TURNIS VILLAGI: M

Wind Each The And Vin Hat the The The The But

Aud.

days ter rei li reed tweet #18.19841 "I'llet" ctew · 中国新 it ren the te

BIHLL his id Batgrine the c plun, we wi eter n merch Ly lie found Matthe. paul il of Da net ah the re men u here f > no oth Ha voralli; one th are the measy os eacl Wile m may h tipsør.

compet to look relura it would